About the Speakers

JED L. MARCUS, ESQ.

Mr. Marcus is a Member who chairs the firm's Labor and Employment Law practice group. Mr. Marcus represents employers throughout the United States on all types of employment and labor relations matters. He is well known for his vigorous and successful representation of employers in employment and labor litigation, including class and collective actions. Mr. Marcus regularly counsels employers on discrimination, wrongful termination, sexual harassment, NLRB matters, wage and hour, and Title VII compliance; conducts investigations into harassment, discrimination, and whistleblower claims; and regularly trains supervisors and employees on labor and employment matters.

CYNTHIA J. BORRELLI, ESQ.

Ms. Borrelli is a Member of the firm, participates in the firm's Labor and Employment Law practice group, and directs the firm's Insurance Regulatory practice group. Ms. Borrelli works closely with attorneys in the taxation, employment law and benefits and workers' compensation groups on issues relating to employee benefits and executive compensation, COBRA, ERISA Welfare benefit plans, agent disputes, and workers' compensation benefits and related issues.

STEPHEN R. KNOX, ESQ.

Mr. Knox is a Member of the firm. He possesses a broad array of trial experience before federal and state trial and appellate courts, as well as alternative dispute resolution panels, in several jurisdictions around the country. He works closely with the Labor and Employment Law practice group defending employers against employee lawsuits.

EMILY J. WEXLER, ESQ.

Ms. Wexler is an Associate in the firm's Labor and Employment Law practice group. She was a law clerk to the Honorable Ariel A. Rodriguez, Presiding Judge of the Appellate Division, Superior Court of New Jersey. Prior to becoming a lawyer, she was a human resources manager for a national retail chain, and has effectively used her experience to advise employers in every aspect of Labor and Employment Law.
