

Implementing Best Practices in 2018 and Beyond: Eric Chase's Legal Audit Checklist for Auto Dealers ©

This checklist is a suggested guide for all automotive dealers (1) to use in their ongoing efforts to assure their files and operations are current in matters of legal importance; (2) to provide reminders for ongoing and periodic legal requirements; (3) to have a simple, handy way of auditing their legal "health;" and (4) to trigger action(s) that might otherwise be overlooked. The checklist does not constitute legal advice.

I. FRANCHISE RELATIONSHIP FILES

(Assure security of these important documents. Limit access to those few with a need to know.)

- |   |                          |                          |                          |
|---|--------------------------|--------------------------|--------------------------|
| A. Current Sales and Service Agreement, with all amendments and modifications  | <input type="checkbox"/> | <input type="checkbox"/> | <input type="checkbox"/> |
| i. Keep an up-to-date and complete copy of each Sales and Service Agreement, with standard provisions, all amendments, and related correspondence.  |                          |                          |                          |
| ii. Advisable to have both hard copy and electronic copy.   |                          |                          |                          |
| iii. Keep in a nearby, easy-to-access file drawer.  |                          |                          |                          |
| iv. Alternate Dispute Resolution (ADR) provisions, if any. Be sure to read and know when you have alternatives to the courtroom. (Note: Federal Law prohibits auto franchisors from imposing mandatory binding arbitration for all disputes as part of a dealer agreement. See 15 U.S.C. § 1226.) |                          |                          |                          |
| v. Letters of Intent (LOIs)   |                          |                          |                          |
| vi. "Other" agreements, such as separate facility or performance agreements.  |                          |                          |                          |

B. Factory Bulletins, Announcements, Programs

- i. Watch for “zingers” in otherwise routine correspondence (sometimes references to these show up in termination notices).
- ii. Carefully review any communications that refers to any change(s) in the brand's dealer agreement.
- iii. Keep a complete file on ongoing programs (e.g., GM's "Essential Brand Elements"), and monitor your progress and commitments.
- iv. Keep all communications with the franchisor on recalls.

C. Possible or Actual Disputes or Disagreements: correspondence, memos, notes and other documents regarding actual or potential controversy, or other communications addressing items that are specifically applicable to your dealership. Keep copies of all correspondence that's addressed directly to you on all these subjects:

- |   |                          |                          |                          |
|---|--------------------------|--------------------------|--------------------------|
| i. Sales  | <input type="checkbox"/> | <input type="checkbox"/> | <input type="checkbox"/> |
| ii. Service and CSI   | <input type="checkbox"/> | <input type="checkbox"/> | <input type="checkbox"/> |
| iii. Allocations  | <input type="checkbox"/> | <input type="checkbox"/> | <input type="checkbox"/> |
| iv. Warranty  | <input type="checkbox"/> | <input type="checkbox"/> | <input type="checkbox"/> |
| v. Dealership Audits  | <input type="checkbox"/> | <input type="checkbox"/> | <input type="checkbox"/> |
| vi. Facilities  | <input type="checkbox"/> | <input type="checkbox"/> | <input type="checkbox"/> |
| vii. Location of Dealership                                 | <input type="checkbox"/> | <input type="checkbox"/> | <input type="checkbox"/> |
| viii. Dualling/Undualling                                   | <input type="checkbox"/> | <input type="checkbox"/> | <input type="checkbox"/> |
| ix. New agreements/amendments                               | <input type="checkbox"/> | <input type="checkbox"/> | <input type="checkbox"/> |
| x. Availability of (desirable) product                      | <input type="checkbox"/> | <input type="checkbox"/> | <input type="checkbox"/> |
| xi. Incentive Programs and Compliance with Terms/Conditions | <input type="checkbox"/> | <input type="checkbox"/> | <input type="checkbox"/> |
| xii. Factory Programs                                       | <input type="checkbox"/> | <input type="checkbox"/> | <input type="checkbox"/> |
| xiii. Floorplan   | <input type="checkbox"/> | <input type="checkbox"/> | <input type="checkbox"/> |

D. Franchise Termination File (if applicable): Threats regarding possible termination/ nonrenewal. On this one, if you are getting threatening or coercive comments – keep a separate file, and responsibly respond to all such mail from your franchisor. If a termination threat is even hinted, talk to an experienced lawyer.

E. “Required” Business Plans

- i. Some, but by no means all, brands require periodic (usually annual) business plans.
- ii. Sometimes, the franchisor will require a business plan from a dealer perceived as underperforming.

- iii. Be careful on these. If you puff your plans, the factory may argue that you made binding promises. If your franchisor has already preprinted your plans or "promises," don't sign on to those that are not fair or realistic. Watch for "zingers" that might set you up for termination (i.e., admissions of current non-compliance with dealer agreement or agreements that require average or above performance at all times in sales and/or CSI).

F. Financial Statements and Related Documents

- i. Monthly financial statements: keep at least a full set of monthly financial statements as reported to the franchisor for at least three years.
- ii. Keep end-of-year cumulative factory statements for at least seven years.
- iii. Keep 13th month statements for at least seven years.
- iv. Keep copies of all state, federal and local tax filings, and associated correspondence for at least seven years.
- v. Other financial statements, audits, reviews.
- vi. Related financial correspondence.
- vii. Procedures to protect confidentiality of and limited access to all financial documents
- viii. Assure backup and redundancy of electronically stored information.

G. Document Retention for Litigation: If you are in litigation, or a formal dispute is imminent, you must retain and safeguard everything that may be relevant, including all electronically stored information. This retention requirement is usually referred to as a "litigation hold." The Federal Rules of Civil Procedure (and similar state rules) now incorporate sensible and very detailed requirements regarding the preservation for litigation of such electronically stored records. Coordinate with your counsel on this. Make sure all impacted employees are properly instructed. Continue to safeguard and monitor litigation retention requirement. As soon as litigation becomes likely, there should be a clear "litigation hold" letter in effect, and periodically refreshed. Talk to your lawyer about storing everything in this category in appropriate format.

H. Franchisor Financial Health: In the aftermath of the GM and Chrysler bankruptcies, keep a file of articles or correspondence that may assist you in monitoring your franchisor's financial wherewithal.

II. LEGAL ADVISOR/STATE LEGAL ISSUES

A. Your Legal Advisor

- i. Every dealer should have one: an attorney you can talk to with confidence.
- ii. Make sure your lawyer has experience in franchise/auto, and work with specialists on matters of importance (i.e., transactional, litigation, etc.)
- iii. Don't be shy. If you're looking for a lawyer for any matter of consequence, interview more than one.
- iv. If you are searching for an attorney, a good starting point is the National Association of Dealer Counsel. Its directory identifies experienced auto franchise attorneys throughout the United States.

B. State Legal Questions

- i. Keep mailings from your state or metro association that address legal topics, as well as pending changes and amendments to laws and regulations.
- ii. Call your association with questions.
- iii. Keep a copy of state franchise laws and regulations that affect dealers: Read them!

III. BUSINESS STRUCTURE RECORDS; MINUTES

A. Structure: Corporation, LLC, etc.
