Lilian is an associate in the firm's Miami office.

She began her legal career as a real estate attorney representing lenders and borrowers in property foreclosure actions and consumer protection cases. She later transitioned to representing foreign and domestic corporate entities in a range of commercial disputes involving UCC claims, worker's compensation claims, and construction disputes, among others.

Prior to joining Bressler, Amery & Ross, P.C., she focused her practice on civil and complex commercial litigation, counseling and representing clients in business and real estate disputes.
