Michael T. Hensley is the Co-Chair of Bressler's Business and Commercial Litigation practice across all firm offices. Michael is a trial attorney with a diverse practice that spans complex commercial disputes, environmental, labor and employment, and professional malpractice matters. His practice focuses on high exposure individual matters, national class actions and multi-district litigation. He is retained by some of the largest companies in the world for their high stakes litigation, and routinely litigates the most complicated of cases in venues across the country.

Clients cite Michael's natural ability to present complex facts and concepts to juries in an easily understood and relatable manner, as the main reason they retain him for their high exposure litigation needs. They respect not only his proven and successful record of aggressively trying many cases to verdict, but also his creativity in creating leverage for favorable settlements where appropriate. In addition to his reputation as a formidable litigator and leading trial attorney, Michael is a respected appellate advocate who has successfully argued before multiple state Appellate Divisions and U.S. Courts of Appeal.

A firm leader, Michael is Chair of Bressler's Compensation Committee which sets compensation for all firm attorneys, and a Member of the firm's Strategic Planning Committee.

Outside of the office, Michael is on the Board of Trustees and a member of the Association of the Federal Bar of New Jersey, a member of the New York State Bar Association's Commercial and Federal Litigation Section, and a member of the Defense Research Institute.
