Lisa Vick is an associate in the firm's Insurance group, focusing her practice on insurance defense and first party property.

Prior to joining Bressler, Lisa served as in house counsel at a Florida insurance company, where she handled disputed claims from re-open to final resolution. As the company's corporate representative, Lisa specialized in mediation, attending virtually all of the companies mediations for the south Florida region. Lisa also assisted outside counsel in the development of case strategies and testified on behalf of the company.

Lisa earned her J.D. cum laude from Pace University School of Law, also earning a certification in Environmental Law. While earning her J.D., Lisa was an editor for the Environmental Law Review and was a part of the Environmental Litigation Clinic. Lisa remains passionate about protecting our environment. Lisa earned her B.S. from Nova Southeastern University.
