

Hospitality & Leisure

Bressler's Hospitality and Leisure attorneys are attuned to the legal needs of our clients in travel and tourism, one of the nation's most complex and fastest-growing sectors. We provide interdisciplinary counsel to meet a full spectrum of needs for a variety of hospitality industry clients ranging from owners, operators and real estate developers to service providers, institutional lenders, investment banks or capital providers. Our team's integrated approach and extensive experience enables us to understand the unique issues hospitality clients are facing in this highly specialized area of law.

We understand contemporary business and legal issues unique to hospitality industry clients. Our team advises on a full range of legal issues that may arise within this diverse sector including property acquisitions, real estate, land use and zoning, planning and construction, commercial litigation, financing and capital structure, general liability issues, regulatory and compliance concerns, securities, litigation, immigration, labor and employment challenges, intellectual property, commercial, M&A, and general litigation matters.

Drawing on our decades of deep legal, regulatory and industry knowledge, our Hospitality and Leisure Industry Team offers innovative strategies to protect our clients' interests, mitigate risks, and enhance business operations.

RELATED AREAS

Appellate
Bankruptcy, Creditors' Rights & Business Reorganizations
Cannabis Law
Creditors' Rights Litigation
Cross-Border Transactions and Investments
Cybersecurity, Privacy & Technology
Environmental Litigation
Financial Crime Compliance
Financial Institutions
Franchise Law
General Litigation
Immigration
Insurance Litigation
Labor & Employment Law
Mergers & Acquisitions
Neutral Arbitrators and Mediators
Premises Liability and General Litigation
Private Client
Real Estate